17 Churches and Salvation Army Back the Movement in Brainerd---Mayor Beise's Proclamation

+++++ In the military camps the Bible is being studied by young men near the firing line with an interest that is exceptional. One soldier recently made the statement "if he had known what good stuff there was in the Bible he would have read it before. Now he was going to make up for lost time."

There will be no lost time if every family takes prompt measures in sending their children to the Sunday schools which are ready and willing to receive them.

A new star has risen in the Sunday school sky, namely, "Go-to-Sunday-School-Day." The purpose of the day is to gather back into the various schools all former scholars, young and old, and endeavor to have them re-unite with the schools and aid them in their great work.

Placards were hung on the door knobs of the different homes in town today announcing this new plan and it is expected to have a large attendance tomorrow.

The different superintendents of Brainerd had a meeting several days ago in which steps were taken to have classes and teachers and an interesting program for all who attend tomorrow.

The Sunday school is going to prove more and more a vital factor in the religious life of the young.

Government Employees Enjoy War Prosperity

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 3.—A merry war is on among government department heads for labor. So flagrant has become the rival bidding for employees to man the many new bureaus that the puzzled executives are making aggrieved protests to congress.

The government clerks, some of whom haven't had a raise in pay since Polk's administration, are feeling a bit of war prosperity.

"They are fairly robbing me!" declared Secretary Redfield, referring to the new shipping board. He said they were taking all his experts who have done their experting heretofore for $1,600 a year, and starting them out at from $3,200 to $4,000. His commerce department, he declared, was being ruinously disorganized.

Stricter rules are in force against transfers of civil service employees from one department to another. But the men simply quit, and soon get another job with another department head who rarely proves particularly inquisitive as to their past if they can do the work.

Before the war, Washington was strictly a low-wage town. Congressmen found more votes were gained by spending appropriations in their districts back home than in raising Clerk Bill Jones' pay from $560 to $630 a year.

HUNS FALL BACK ON WEST FRONT

Withdraw From Hilly Front In Important Chemin des Dames Sector.

MOVEMENT NOT CLEAR

Evident That Germans Tired of Strain Have Decided To Fall Back on Laon, Capital of Aisne Department.

London, Nov. 3.—On the Aisne front in France where for several months the French troops of General Petain had kept them sharply to task, the Germans have retreated from points along the historic Chemin-des-Dames sector.

Just where the retrograde movement took place and how far it extends cannot yet be told, as the German communication announcing it merely says the Teutons "unnoticed and undisturbed by the enemy" systematically withdrew from the hilly front in this region. The entire line to the north of the Aisne where the Germans were last reported as facing the French is undulating in character from the Soissons sector eastward toward Craonne.

It is impossible from the rather terse acknowledgement of withdrawal to delimit the terrain given up. Germans Become Tired.

Nevertheless it seems apparent that the Germans, tired of the terrible ordeal they had been forced to undergo for some time from the French artillery and violent infantry attacks have decided to fall back upon Laon, capital of the department of the Aisne, which with its network of railways has been the quest of the French.

It is possible and seemingly probable that the withdrawal of the Germans will also compel the falling back of the German forces in the turn of the battle line in this region running northward to St. Quentin. Indeed, if it does not affect the German positions as far north as Arras.

Nothing Special In East.
The German statement announcing the retreat, says:

"In Flanders there has been lively artillery activity on the Yser.

"Unnoticed and undisturbed by the enemy, we systematically withdrew our lines from the hilly front of the Chemin-des-Dames last night.

"From the East nothing special has occurred."

WOMAN'S REALM

Changing Fashions: Don't Stop at Cut of Your Clothes

BY MARGARET MASON.
(Written for the United Press)

Where's Gwendolin and Ermentrude Mehtable, Sabina? Where's Araminta, Merribelle? And likewise Clementina? They are the fussy names of yore. The fashion's change is plain. For now the very smartest names are Ann, Sue, Betty, Jane.

New York, Nov. 2.—Changing fashions don't stop at the cut of your coat or the shape of your hat. No indeed they invade the sanctity of the home and dictate the style of your furniture and the color of your curtains, the size of your calling cards and the monogram on your stationery. Even your real name isn't safe from the meddling of the mode.

There are a few women who object to changing their last name for a husband's but I have yet to see a woman who rebelled at changing her first name if she isn't smart enough to furnish it up a bit and make it over to suit the present day styles.

In our grandmother's day a female was hopelessly without the fashionable pale unless her name boasted at least three syllables. Then there was the era when you were lost unless you possessed at least two cognomens like Eliza Jane of Mehtable Anne or Henrietta Hester.

Bessies, Jennies, Fannies, Annies, Susans, Birdies, Nellies and Nannies had an awful (and I use awful advisedly) vogue about thirty-five years ago and in more recent years were called but not chosen perhaps as Geraldine, Gwendolin, Ernestine, Albertina, Georgiana, Evelyn, Evangeline and Isabella.

Clarissa, Araminta, Arrabella, Sophia, Euphemia and Clementina flourished midst Victorian crevel work, porcelain cats and china dogs, and although we have swung around to a fashionable passion for those Victorian knick knacks, we haven't gone so far as to work up enough enthusiasm to take back the Victorian names.

Rather we have gone back to the plain name of the one syllable period, and all the brand new infants of my acquaintance have been duly dubbed Ann, Jane, Susan, Betty, Nancy, Sally and Nell while three have succumbed to the predilection for two to one with the quaintly euphonious cognomens of Betty Jane, Polly Anna and Mary Ellen.

Age has withered and customs stated the infinite variety of floral names so that Lily, Rose, Pansy, Myrtle, Ivy, Fern, Violet, Mayblossom and Daisy are forced to smell as sweet by any other name if they would be fashionable.

Gems of thought for names, such as Pearl, Ruby, Opal, Jewel and Diamond have been put away into the jewel casket of discard, and Faith, Hope, Charity, Joy, Delight, Patience, Constance, Prudence, are now found only in the family Bible—that is of course if you can find it.

In Inez Haynes Irwin's newest book "The Lady of Kingdoms," one of the characters, whose rightful name is Eliza, smartly spells it backwards and thereby revels in the up-to-date handle of Azile.

I know a fashionable woman who has successively rung all the changes on her name through the different name periods from her infancy up to maturity. She has been successfully and fashionably Jane, Jennie, Janet and now is content to relapse again modestly to Jane.

It isn't a bit fashionable to bear a name even faintly suggestive of things Teutonic these days. That is why a paragraph in the day's news announces that Tracy Einstein, Dr. Schwartz, Albert Rosenfeld, and Aaron Brookheim have had their names changed respectively to Tracy Cullen, Dr. Blake, Albert Redfield and Andrew Brooks.

Naturally a pretty maiden doesn't yearn to have recourse to the law to have her last name changed. She prefers to let her fiancé do it with a wedding ring and white ribbons instead of a lawyers fee and red tape. But when it comes to her first name, if some misguided parent has wished Annetta or Susanna, on her at birth, she can perform a little operation on a couple of syllables and emerge modishly, Ann or Sue, without the aid of a party of the second part.

ALL DISLOYALISTS FLAYED

Gompers One of Speakers at Big Gotham Meeting.

New York, Nov. 2.—Disloyalists within the nation were denounced at a monster mass meeting in Madison Square Garden under auspices of the American Defense society, at which Dr. David Jayne Hill, former ambassador to Germany, and Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, were principal speakers.

The meeting ended in a patriotic frenzy when Dr. Hill declared that "The forces of loyalty must prevail over the cohorts of sedition."

Phillipsburg, N. J., Nov. 3.—A large freight house of the Lehigh Valley railroad here, a building used by the Ceresota Flour company and 10 box cars containing drygoods, eggs and butter were destroyed here by a fire. The loss was $200,000.

RUSSIA FACED BY 147 DIVISIONS OF TROOPS

Washington, Nov. 3.—Notwithstanding withdrawals of German troops from the Russian front for the Italian campaign, there still are 147 German, Austrian, Turkish and Bulgarian divisions facing the Russian army. The Russian embassy announces that it has received from General Dessino, representative of the Russian army with the British headquarters, the figures on the strength of the Austro-German troops on the Russian front.

63 Negro Rioters in Court.

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 3.—Under a heavy guard, 63 negro soldiers charged with mutiny and murder in connection with the Houston riot, in August, were marched into the courtroom at the post chapel at Fort Sam Houston. Only 63 of the 64 defendants answered, one being sick. The court martial was speedily organized. Preliminary statements as to conditions in Houston at the time of the rioting were agreed upon, and the introduction of testimony was started.

TROOPS GUARD OIL SUPPLY

Needed For Navy, Is Protected From Texas Strikers.

Houston, Texas, Nov. 3.—Five companies of United States troops are guarding immense stores of oil for the American and Allied navies against possible damage by the several thousand workmen who are on strike in the Humble and Sour Lake oil fields.

Special trains and automobiles have rushed the soldiers to the guard duty. They are heavily armed, and are equipped with wireless apparatus to be able to cope with any possible failure of the regular telegraph service. The troops number about 2,500.

All saloons in the affected districts have been closed by military order.

"The life of the nation depends upon the navy being supplied with oil," said Brigadier General Todd, acting commander. "This is not a case of capital against labor, but a matter of guarding government property."

Catarhal Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by all's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

The New Method

Backache of any kind is often caused by kidney disorder, which means that the kidneys are not working properly. Poisonous matter and uric acid accumulate within the body in great abundance, over-working the sick kidneys, hence the congestion of blood causes backache in the same manner as a similar congestion in the head causes headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish, irritable, have spots appearing before the eyes, bags under the lids, and lack ambition to do things.

"The latest and most effective means of overcoming this trouble, is to eat sparingly of meat, drink plenty water between meals and take a single Anuric tablet before each meal for a while," says the famous Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y. Simply ask your favorite druggist for Anuric if you have lumbago, rheumatism, gout, dropsy, begin immediately with this novel treatment.

RUSSIA, IN WAR, CALLS FOR HELP

Nation, Worn By War, Claims Allies Should Shoulder Burden.

KERENSKY IS QUOTED

"Ridiculous to Say Nation is Out of War"—Says Russia Fought Alone—Asks Why British Fleet is Not in Baltic.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The Russian embassy made the premier's statement of Russia's position the occasion to reiterate that it has no intention of quitting the war and the treasury has authorized the immediate advance of $31,700,000 out of the credits of $225,000,000. Secretary of State Robert Lansing, deploring any interpretation of Kerensky's statement to the effect that Russia was about to quit the war, "There has been absolutely nothing," he said, "in the dispatches from Russia to justify the impression that Russia is out of the conflict."

Kerensky Demands Help. Petrograd, Thursday, Nov. 3.—Russia is worn out by the strain of war and must have help, Premier Kerensky has told the Associated Press. He said Russia claims as its right that the other Allies now should shoulder the burden it has borne. Russia, the premier declared, has been fighting 18 months longer than England and Russia, has fought her battles alone, is fighting alone now and will continue with American aid, not in troops, but in money and supplies.

World Must Not Lose Faith. "The world must not lose faith in the Russian revolution because it is an economic one," Premier Kerensky added, "and no one has the right to feel disillusioned about it as it takes years to develop a stable government. America's most useful way of helping Russia is in sending boots, leather, iron and money. Premier Kerensky said it would be impossible for the United States to send troops because the difficulties of transport would be too great."

Russia Not Out of War. "Russia is not out of the war," Premier Kerensky said in answer to reports to the contrary.

"Russia has fought consistently since the beginning. She saved France and England from disaster early in the war. She is now worn out by the strain and claims her right that the Allies now shoulder the burden."

Thus Premier Kerensky explained Russia's position to the correspondent while seated in the library of the former private office of the emperor in the winter palace. The correspondent called attention to widely contradictory reports on Russian conditions and asked the premier for a frank statement of the facts.

Impression Held Ridiculous. "It has been said by travelers returning from England and elsewhere to America that opinion among the people, not officially but generally, is that Russia is virtually out of the war," it was explained. "Is Russia out of the war?" he was asked.

Premier Kerensky laughed. "That," he answered, "is a ridiculous question. Russia is taking an enormous part in the war. One has only to remember history. Russia began the war for the Allies. While she was already fighting England was only preparing and America was only observing. Saved Britain and France. "Russia, at the beginning bore the whole brunt of the fighting, thereby saving Great Britain and France. People who say she is out of the war have short memories. We have fought since the beginning and they must now take the heaviest part of the burden on their shoulders.

"At present Russian public opinion is greatly agitated by the question: Where is the great British fleet now that the German fleet is out in the Baltic?"

Sending U. S. Army Impractical. "Russia," the premier repeated, "is worn out. She has been fighting one and a half years longer than England."

"Could an American army be of use if sent to Russia?"

"It would be impossible to send one," said Kerensky. "It is a question of transport. The difficulties are too great."

"If America cannot send troops what would be the most useful way for her to help Russia?" was asked.

"Have her send boots, leather, iron and," the premier added emphatically, "money."

Fought Battles Alone. Premier Kerensky drew attention to Russia having fought her battles alone.

"Russia has fought alone—is fighting alone," Kerensky said. "France has had England to help her from the start and now America has come in."

The premier was asked regarding the morale of the Russian people and the Russian army. He answered:

"The masses are worn out economically. The disorganized state of life in general has had a psychological effect on the people. They doubt the possibility of the attainment of their hopes."

"What is the lesson to the democracies of the world of the Russian revolution?"

"This," Premier Kerensky replied, "is for them to find out. They must not lose faith in the Russian revolution because it is not a political revolution, but an economic one, and a revolution of facts. The Russian revolution is only seven months old. No one has the right to feel disillusioned about it. It will take years to develop."

"In France, which is only as large as three Russian departments (states) it took five years for their revolution to develop fully."

Hopes for All Good Things. Asked what he expected from the constituent assembly, the premier said:

"The constituent assembly begins a new chapter in the history of the revolution. Its voice certainly will be the most important factor in the future of Russia."

"What future do you picture for Russia after the war?"

"No one can draw any real picture of the future," Kerensky said. "Naturally a man who really loves his country will hope for all good things, but that is only his viewpoint, which may or may not be accepted by others."

IF BACKACHE OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take a glass of Salts to flush out Kidneys—Drink plenty water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

WHAT IT MEANS

To fail to share our meats, wheat, fats, and sugar with our allies is to weaken their powers. They have practiced to the limit substitutions of a kind we on this side have not dreamed of as yet. If they are compelled to do more, the people will begin to falter in their support of their armies, and, as a result, the fighting powers of their armies will begin to decline. This will mean a prolongation of the war, and every day the war is prolonged will mean the needless loss of hundreds, thousands of American young men.

That is why failure to support the food conservation movement by the signing of pledge cards and by sticking to the pledges means the betrayal of our armies.

Every pledge card, therefore, is a shield for an American soldier.

Sign and get your friends to sign, housewives.

Men, stand back of the women.

OUTLOOK FOR PROFIT IN PORK PRODUCTION

A statement which appeared in certain Chicago newspapers recently to the effect that the United States Food Administration intends to reduce hog prices to $10 a hundred weight has caused great anxiety among many farmers and has precipitated some unloading of hogs on the market.

A. D. Wilson, federal food administrator for Minnesota, has received from Herbert C. Hoover, United States food administrator, an absolute denial of such an intention on the part of the food administration. Mr. Hoover goes so far as to say that all the powers of the administration will be used to keep the prices at which allied and governmental purchases are made on a plane that will assure a profit to producers of meat animals. Mr. Hoover adds that in his opinion the best market obtainable for the present corn crop of the country will be through livestock; that the need of increased production of beef and pork can be secured only by profit on production.

The war has brought a decrease of more than 28,000,000 hogs in this country through the intense demand for pork and fat and the use of land for the raising of grain for human food instead of for hog feed. Moreover, the export of pork has increased 66.1 per cent since the war began. At the same time domestic consumption has increased 5 per cent. These facts, and the further fact that after the war for a considerable period there will be a poor export market for broad grains but a wide demand for pork and other animal products, make the production of pork a real opportunity for the farmer. This is the view of northwestern experts in pork production.

OTHER PEOPLES OPINIONS

Reply to Ericsson, Welliver, Bromley
I have been interested in the communications of Messrs. Ericsson and Welliver, as well as the reports of the sayings of Mr. Bromley, recently reported in your paper.

And I thought that maybe the ideas of a simple-minded man might not be out of place.

I am not very much interested in evolution, pantheism, Christian Science, Hinduism or any other ism, but I am mighty interested in how I may earn enough so that I may be enabled to raise my boys and girls into being strong, upright and honest American citizens.

I do not care what happened thousands of years ago, or what is in the beyond (it is now that I am living) for, what is past has gone before, the future is but a dream.

I believe most men are religious, for religion is a gift of God; but I also believe that the devil invented the different sects or denominations and he has had a controlling interest in them ever since.

Friend Ericsson, God is love, the simplest but greatest thing in heaven or earth, and when we get to the great unknown, we are not going to be asked whether we believe in this or that, or whether we danced, played pool or cards or went to the movies. No, no, we shall be asked, did you feed the hungry? Did you give water to the thirsty? Did you visit and help the sick and needy?

Religion, God's religion, what is it? Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and thy neighbor as thyself. Who is doing it? Preachers and laymen, stand up and be counted.

MAXIMALISTS ARE ACTIVE

Slav Government Determined to Suppress Demonstration.

Petrograd, Nov. 3.—Maximalists continue preparations for a demonstration, the date of which is being kept secret, but is believed to be set for November 4. It is persistently rumored that they intend to take armed action to seize the supreme power. The government is receiving offers of help from all quarters and will prevent the proceedings by force if necessary.

American Engineers Under Fire in France

BY J. W. PEGLER,
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

American Field Headquarters, France, Oct. 12 (By Mail).—Somewhere in an active sector, the American railroad engineers are running trains right up to the front. They are the first American regiment to come under shell-fire in the great war.

An entire railroad system, from the general manager's office to the heart of the lovely track-walker has been handed over to the Sammies by the French war office. Trains manned by American boys are moving on a strict schedule, carrying shells for the guns, food for the French troops and the daily movement of points forward or coming back on leave to rest.

Temporarily the regiment is loaned to the French for the operation of this railroad. The Sammies may stay on the job there for the duration of the war or they may be shifted to some other line. They get French rations and their rest is a part of the French system. But they wear their own uniform, carry American pay and run the road by their own method, which means economy of man power.

At some points their line is within the range of the Boche guns and shells crump at random along the right-of-way. At night there is danger of Boche aeroplanes slipping through the tight French aerial patrol and bombing the Sammies at work. This has happened, but so far our troops have had no casualties.

I was with engineers last night when they marched to the troop train to move forward. The move was made without any unnecessary sound to guide Boche air-raiders. Along pitch-dark streets they swung through the town to music of their own hob-nails beating on flint pavements. The bandmen were there with their horns smothered in green kimono to prevent the moon-light from glinting on the brass.

The American commander kept the time of departure secret so that half the town would not stay awake till one a. m., to see his boys off.

Breaking into single file the Sammies stepped out of the darkness into the American Red Cross buffet at the railroad station, stowed away their rifles and steel helmets and lined up for free chow.

Fifteen American women, worked like biscuit-pushers in a bery and when they began to lose ground against the crush of hungry Sammies the colonel himself jumped behind the counter and poured coffee out of a big pail.

There wasn't much time. The troop train slid into the station, the Sammies piled in, forty to a car and the officers clambered into their coach.
Up forward the whistle tooted cautiously; a lantern flashed and the train moved out carrying the first American Sammies to the front.

And some of them aren't coming back.

WILL HOLD PETROGRAD

Slavs Decide Not To Move Capital To Moscow.

Intend to Defend Present Capital Until Driven Out By Teutons.

Petrograd, Nov. 3.—Austrian troops which formed for attack near Dube village, southwest of Eirdy, were repulsed by fire, the last official statement asserted.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Plans to change the Russian seat of government to Moscow have been abandoned for the present, the provisional government having decided to defend Petrograd to the last extremity.
Cablegrams received here said the commission for the defense of Petrograd had reached that decision because the critical condition of the country made it indispensable that the government remain in Petrograd as long as the capital was not directly menaced by the Germans.

THROW ADMIRAL OVERBOARD

Three Officers Killed When German Sailors Mutiny.

London, Nov. 3.—Three officers and a number of sailors of the German navy were killed in "another" mutiny at Kiel early in September, according to a dispatch from Amsterdam to the Daily Express, which claims to have authentic details. The outbreak occurred on the battleships Kronprinz and Schleswig-Holstein and started when the men revolted against being drafted into the submarine service.

Schmidt Thrown Into Sea.
The sailors on the Kronprinz threw Admiral Schmidt overboard and stabbed and threw overboard Lieutenant Raul, the admiral's aide, and another officer. A battle on the ship's deck between the officers and sailors followed. Three officers and a number of sailors were killed. Similar scenes occurred on the Schleswig-Holstein.

LIBERTY MOTOR MEETS TEST

To Be Produced In Large Quantities Soon.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The first fighting airplane, wholly made in America of American materials, has taken the air in successful test flights. In making this fact known, officials of the aircraft board said few changes in the design of either the plane or of the "Liberty motor" are believed necessary and that production in quantity of the fighting machines soon will be in progress in many factories.

By the first of the new year it is expected that the aircraft program will be well under way, and by July 1 the government expects to be able to supply any demands of its allies. Machines which United States forces in Europe will need when spring comes are being built abroad.

Plot to Abduct Ford Boy.

Detroit, Nov. 3.—It has become known that federal agents in Detroit are investigating an alleged plot to abduct or kill Henry Ford II, infant son of Edsel Ford and grandson of the multimillionaire manufacturer. A letter demanding $10,000 from Edsel Ford as the price for the baby's safety was turned over to the postoffice inspectors several days ago. It is understood that one man has been detained and that several arrests are impending. The letter was signed "St.illian Anarchists' Association."

Italian Aviators Feed Friends.

London, Nov. 3.—One lone Italian post on Mont Nero, cut off by the sweep of von Mackensen's army from the remainder of Gen. Cadorna's army, held out three long days against the invaders and then only gave up because ammunition ran out. During these three days, Italian aviators, circling at risk of their lives in the hail of German artillery over the positions, dropped bread and other food to the courageous garrison. The incident was vouched for in authentic dispatches just received here.

Willard May Meet Fulton in Spring

BY H. C. HAMILTON,
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Nov. 3.—Jess Willard is getting ready to fight Fred Fulton—unless someone comes along and bumps Fred off the high perch he now occupies in the minds of fight fans.

Promoters are now angling for the match. One of them, in fact, has made a definite offer to Willard to meet the Minnesota mauler, only to have Willard answer that he wasn't ready to do any scrapping. Something definite, however, was pried from Willard, when he said he would let the people know when the time came.

Whether Willard's business of running a circus was responsible for his action in turning down the offer the heavyweight champion didn't say. It has been noised around—some say by Willard himself—that he wants to promote his own battle and take that much more coin away as his share of the proceeds. However, the promoter by whom the offer was made doubted whether Willard would bite off such a huge chunk, preferring to believe that Jess would hardly be able to devote any time to promoting if he was to take of his circus business and prepare for a championship battle at the same time.

Jim Coffroth has angled for this fight without success. Willard has accused Coffroth of giving him a raw deal when Willard and Gunboat Smith met in a twenty-round murder in California while the world was still waiting for a successor to Jack Johnson. Smith did the murdering and Willard has been howling of late that he was robbed of the decision because of Coffroth. As a matter of fact, Willard was lucky to escape without being completely knocked out, and should have little cause to grumble just because Coffroth probably wants to give him a few thousand dollars. To be real frank about it Coffroth probably has the only arena close enough to the United States where a bout of any class could be staged. Other scraps would have to be twenty-round affairs, where Willard probably would be able to hold off his opponent.

Fulton is going to get the match, though, and before another year has passed, unless Willard simply comes out and retires—in which case the title probably would be turned over to Fulton to defend. In that event a championship bout probably would be arranged immediately, for Fulton is the kind of a scrapper who doesn't sit back and wait for trouble. He goes and looks for it.

MAJOR GREEN NOW MERITED PROMOTION

Well Known Recruiting Officer at Duluth, Promoted and Assigned to Active Duty

INSTRUCTED RIFLE CLUB HERE

In 1906 Won First Place in Army Rifle Competition at Chicago.

Broke World's Record

The Dispatch is glad to print this story from the Duluth Herald, mentioning the promotion of Capt. Ned M. Green to major and his assignment to active duty. He is particularly well known to the men of the Brainerd rifle club, having instructed them at their rifle range. Some of the young men whom he was particularly interested are now at the front and one of them, Burt Orne, was high man at a shoot at the Maine range, exceeding by 50 points his nearest competitor.

Major Green is one of the most modest men on record and the boys here, when they read the history of the major, were astonished to see what a celebrity had been entertained by them. With one accord, every man saluted when he heard the major was promoted. Here is the Duluth Herald story:

Maj. Ned M. Green. That's what the members of the United States army recruiting staff are calling their chief officer today. Mr. Green was promoted from captain to major, the promotion to date from Aug. 5, 1917.

Maj. Green has been in charge of the recruiting station at Duluth since last March, and has been one of the most popular and efficient officers ever stationed here. Maj. Green will end his services here tomorrow and will probably be assigned to one of the army cantonments.

Maj. Green enlisted in the regular army the day war was declared against Spain, April 24, 1898. At the battle of San Juan Hill, Cuba, July, 1898, Maj. Green was recommended for a medal of honor, was especially mentioned in orders by the president for his conduct and was commissioned second lieutenant. He has served continuously since that time. He served all through the Cuban war and has been with the United States troops in the Philippines, China and other places. His service in the Philippines extended over eight years and for three years he was on the Mexican border, two years with Sioux Indians at the Rosebud agency, S. D., and two years with the Apache Indians, at White Mountain reservation, Arizona. During his twenty years of service he had never been stationed near a town until he came to Duluth.

In 1906 Maj. Green won first place in the army rifle competition at Chicago and broke the army and world's record for rapid fire with a military rifle. The same year he was on the national pistol team.

All officers on the active list now doing recruiting have been ordered to report to their commands.

SCREEN SENSATION DUE SOON

"The Honor System", Fox Film, Will be Shown at the Best Theatre Monday and Tuesday

While film producers have been busy with many subjects far afield and dealing with remote historical or imaginary subjects William Fox in his new play, "The Honor System," has gone to the homes and hearts of the people for a vital theme. This spectacular ten-reel production will be shown in this city next Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 8 and 9. It deals with the life of the average man, but with the big vision that is characteristic of true art.

The round of characters includes many of the most interesting types of modern American life, the hero being an ambitious, honorable, cultivated youth who by means of the entangling web of circumstance is attacked by gigantic graft. His struggles with the serpentine, strangling evil constitute a thrilling nexus of action with which are contrasted the humors of life in the raw southwest and the sentiment and pathos of the feminine element in the story.

DEATH OF LITTLE GIRL

At the Empress Tonight

Charming Ethel Clayton, who numbers her friends and admirers by the tens of thousands, is the star of "The Woman Beneath," the newest World-Picture Brady-Made and this delightful production will be the attraction again tonight at the Best theatre. The story told in this picture is a modern one of New York and western life, with the majority of the scenes transpiring in New York.

GOES TO CAMP DODGE FUND

Five-Piece Imperial Orchestra Played, Jazz Band Selection Made a Hit With Dancers

The dance given Friday evening at Gardner auditorium by the Brotherhood of All Railway Employees for the benefit of the Crow Wing county Camp Dodge soldiers' fund was a great success.

Numerous tickets were sold. The Imperial orchestra of five pieces played a grand repertoire of dance music, and the jazz band selections were especially pleasing.

The dance committee included Wm. McGarry, C. Bruhn, John Wise, Jas. McGarry and Robert Anderson.

OAK STREET DRAGGED TODAY

Oak street was dragged with a Saude tractor attached to a Ford, John F. Woodhead, of the Woodhead Motor Co., demonstrating the machine and County Engineer C. L. Motl viewing the work. The county may get one and may also use machinery to keep snow from country roads.

BRAINERD'S ODDEST STORIES OF TODAY

The coal commission of the county met in Brainerd yesterday and things warmed up right away.

Halloween brought a few of the pleasant little devils that the kids are capable of and fences were pushed out of line, gates were mysteriously slipped from their hinges, sundry little houses were upset to the discomfort of the whole neighborhood and one band of hopefuls pushed and pulled a brand new Ford half a mile down a street.

Uncle Sam needs stenographers and typewriters and is reaching right down into Brainerd and enlisting them for department service. Pay starts out good too. One Brainerd girl left Thursday, assured of an annual salary of $1,000. Should be no difficulty convincing young people now that a good business college education pays and we have a good college right here in town.

There is a charming, fascinating girl of this town whose birthday comes on a most auspicious day in Brainerd, payday, November 15th. She expects to receive a whole lot of presents.

Yesterday was a hard one on cars. It is reported a lady and a helping friend were four and a half hours making the trip from Crosby to Brainerd. The car bucked and they lost a crank pin five times. Then the anti-freeze mixture boiled up and they gathered snow to calm it. When the car made home and the man of the house took hold of it, the car behaved nicely and would have climbed a tree had he so desired.

Another fellow's car bucked on a small hill and it took half an hour to make the grade. On the way home the car behaved well. On the top of a rise on the 13th street cement road, the owner stopped to set curtain flaps. The car had a kick left and started down the grade and nearly went into the ditch.

Attorney E. L. Forbes of Pine River was in the city on legal business.

D. K. Fullerton, a general foreman of the shops, went to St. Paul this afternoon to attend the banquet given at the Saint Paul hotel to Northern Pacific men enlisted to go to Russia and put the railways on a standard basis.

At the Empress Sunday

Western pictures have an established place in the hearts of movie fans, young and old. The sage critic of the drama, too, has become to concede the superior possibilities of the screen for the immense scenic effect so vital to a true story of the crude life of mountain and desert. With each Triangle "western" comes a new standard of production and in "Ashes of Hope," the newest drama featuring Belle Bennett, a high mark of excellence is set.
